

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements..... 1

Chapter 1 Types of Commercial and Bankruptcy Fraud..... 3

 I. Introduction 5

 II. Frauds that Result in Insolvency 6

 A. Ponzi Schemes 6

 1. Examples of Ponzi Schemes7

 2. Identifying Ponzi Schemes.....9

 B. Bust-out Schemes 9

 1. Types of Bust-outs.....10

 a. Merchant Bust-outs10

 b. Consumer Credit Card11

 2. Identifying Bust-outs.....12

 C. Bleed-out Schemes..... 12

 1. Types of Bleed-outs12

 a. Buy-out12

 b. Dual or Substitute Businesses13

 c. Insider Sales/Transfers13

 2. Identifying Bleed-outs 13

 D. Miscellaneous Commercial Frauds that May Result in Bankruptcy..... 14

1.	Insurance Fraud	14
2.	Accounting Fraud	15
III.	Fraud in Contemplation of Imminent Bankruptcy	15
A.	Concealing Assets	16
1.	Offshore Asset-protection Trusts	17
B.	Fraudulent Transfers.....	19
1.	Types of Fraudulent Transfers.....	20
2.	Spotting Fraudulent Transfers.....	21
C.	Petition Mills.....	22
IV.	Fraud Potpourri	23
A.	Destroying Documents	23
B.	Lying on Schedules	24
C.	Fictitious Bidder/Straw Person	25
D.	Serial Bankruptcy Filings	26
E.	Fraud by Non-debtors.....	26
1.	Trustee Fraud	27
2.	Fraud by Bankruptcy Professionals.....	27
3.	Creditor Fraud	28
F.	Collusive Involuntary Bankruptcies.....	29
Chapter 2	The Forensic Investigation	31
I.	Introduction: Getting to the Bottom of It	33
II.	The Human Factor: Motivation	34
III.	Gathering Facts	35
A.	Whistle-Blowers.....	35
B.	Management	36
C.	Outside Sources	36

D.	Records	37
IV.	How Was the Debtor’s Business Run? What Were the Internal Controls?	38
A.	Basic Considerations	38
B.	How Did Management Operate?	39
V.	Organizing the Investigation	40
VI.	Types of Fraud, Symptoms and Methods of Detection: Adapt Your Plan to the Case at Hand	45
VII.	Putting It All Together	52
VIII.	How to Make “Dumb Luck” Happen	53
IX.	Conclusion	54

Chapter 3 Computer Forensics 57

I.	What Is Computer Forensics?	60
II.	Magnetic Media: Central to Computer Forensics	61
III.	Using Electronic Forensic Data	62
IV.	Gathering Electronic Data	63
V.	Human Intelligence	64
VI.	Forensic Examination Protocol	65
VII.	E-mail	67
VIII.	Some Objects of a Computer Forensic Examination	67
A.	Link Files	67
B.	Metadata	68
C.	The Registry	68

D.	Swap Files	69
E.	Audit Trails and Computer Logs	69
F.	Cookies	70
IX.	Embedded Information	70
X.	Devices Other than Computers	72
XI.	Conclusion	72

Chapter 4 The Legal Response to Fraud: Trustees and Creditors Taking Action 73

I.	Introduction	75
II.	Is It Fraud?	75
III.	Bust-out	75
IV.	Bleed-outs	77
A.	Printing Company	77
1.	Trustee's Initial Steps	77
2.	Further Steps Taken	78
3.	Results of the Investigation	78
4.	Motivation	78
5.	Outcome	79
B.	Department Store	79
1.	Initial Steps to Take	79
2.	Outcome	80
3.	Motivation	80
4.	Lessons Learned	80
C.	Ponzi Scheme	81

1.	Initial Steps	81
2.	Objectives.....	82
3.	Outcome.....	82
V.	Getting the Facts from the Debtor	82
VI.	Getting the Digital Data.....	84
VII.	Getting the Facts	85
A.	Working with Cooperative Third Parties	85
B.	Connecting the Dots	86
VIII.	Follow the Money	87
IX.	Remedies.....	87
A.	Receiverships	88
B.	Bankruptcy.....	88
1.	Property of the Estate	89
2.	Turnover of Property of the Estate.....	89
3.	Turnover of Books and Records	89
4.	Turnover of Property from a Custodian	89
5.	Powers and Rights of a Trustee.....	90
6.	Claw-backs.....	90
7.	Give Constructive Notice	92
C.	State Law Remedies	92
X.	Conclusion.....	92

Chapter 5 International Fraud Remedies 93

I.	Initial Considerations	95
A.	Recovery Focus	95
B.	Asset Concealment Techniques and Indicators ...	96

C.	Recovery Considerations	97
1.	Don't Rush to File Suit or to Obtain Judgment	97
2.	Selection of the Wrong Cause of Action Pursued Can Inhibit Recovery in a Foreign Country	98
3.	Legal Remedies and Protection Vary from Country to Country	98
4.	Keys to an Effective Recovery Strategy	98
II.	Bank, Fiduciary and Secrecy Laws	99
A.	United States	99
B.	United Kingdom	100
1.	Tournier v. National Provincial and Union Bank of England	100
C.	Canada	101
D.	Singapore	102
1.	Bankers' Books Provisions	102
2.	Third-Party Discovery	104
E.	Hong Kong	105
III.	Standing of Foreign Representative	106
A.	United States	106
B.	United Kingdom	106
C.	Commonwealth/British Offshore Jurisdictions ..	108
D.	The Bahamas	109
1.	Liquidation/Winding-up Procedures in the Bahamas	109
2.	Receiverships in the Bahamas	110
3.	Cross-border Insolvencies in the Bahamas	111
E.	Canada	111

1.	Liquidation/Reorganization in Canada	111
2.	Role of the Court in Insolvency Proceedings	112
3.	Cross-border Insolvencies in Canada.....	112
F.	Hong Kong (Special Administrative Region of the People’s Republic of China).....	113
1.	Insolvency Proceedings in Hong Kong	113
2.	Schemes of Arrangement in Hong Kong.....	114
3.	Cross-border Insolvencies	114
IV.	Pre-Action Discovery	115
A.	United States	115
1.	State Law	115
2.	Federal Law	118
B.	Foreign Jurisdictions, Third-party Discovery, Reference to U.S. Federal Law.....	119
C.	Foreign Evidence Gathering	120
1.	Hague Convention	120
2.	Norwich Pharmacal	121
3.	Anton Piller – English Law	123
4.	Switzerland	124
5.	Panama	125
D.	Compelled Consent Directives	125
E.	Failure of Contempt Powers	126
V.	Freezing Orders	127
A.	Mareva Injunction.....	127
B.	Statutory Freezing Orders	129

1.	Argentina.....	129
2.	Austria.....	130
3.	France	130
4.	Panama	131
VI.	Specific Causes of Actions	131
A.	Fraud	131
B.	Tracing.....	132
C.	Following (at Law)	132
D.	Conspiracy to Defraud	133
E.	Aiding and Abetting	133
VII.	Conclusion.....	134
Chapter 6	Fraud in 2009	135
I.	Madoff.....	138
II.	Stanford.....	140
III.	Dreier.....	145
IV.	Petters	146
V.	Conclusion.....	149