

Table of Contents

About the Editor

I. Preface

II. Introduction

Commission to Explore Overhauling Chapter 11

III. Constitutional and Practical Problems

Stern v. Marshall: A Constitutional Conundrum

Priming Setoff Rights

Canada's "Northern Lights" Could Dispel Shadow of Bear Stearns over Ch. 15 Practice

Impracticality of Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(2)

Absence of Reference to LLCs in the Code: An "Insider" Problem

Income Means Income—Except When It Doesn't

A Constitutional Challenge to the Automatic-Dismissal Rules

Separate Classification of Student Loan Debt in Chapter 13

Rule 3002 Fun: Does the Rule Need Negative Notice?

A New Twist on the Three Stooges Routine:

Debtor & Creditor Duck So Someone Else Gets Creamed

IV. Executory Contract Problems

Into the Brambles: Section 507(a)(4) and Executoriness

In re Interstate Bakeries: Self-Defining Executoriness

"Section 365(n) – a Call for Clarity"

V. Intellectual Property Problems

Treatment of Franchisee Leases under § 365(d)

Assuming Intellectual Property Licenses

VI. Real Estate & Environmental Problems

Does "Term" Equal "Time"? Calculation of Lease-Damage Claims after Early Termination

Fixing the Qualitech Problem by Revising § 365(h)

Single Asset Real Estate

Whatever Happened to Nonresidential Leases in Section 365(d)(1)?

Prepetition Receiverships may Impede Real Estate Reorganization

The Priority of Environmental Cleanup Costs: A "Collective Action Problem"

VII. The Endgame – Confirmation & post-Confirmation Problems

Expediting Chapter 11 Liquidating Debtor's Distribution to Creditors

Disposition of Surplus Assets in Liquidating Bankruptcy Estates

An Uneven Match: Statutes of Limitations vs. Nondischargeability Actions

A Tangible Solution for Testing Plan Feasibility: Reader's Digest Version

VIII. What's Next for Bankruptcy Reform

What's Next for Bankruptcy Reform