

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Initial Steps	3
A. Meeting Attorneys and Staff in Your Firm/Section/Department.....	3
B. Meeting Judges and Court Personnel.....	5
C. Organizations You Can Join	6
Chapter 2: Internal Interactions	11
A. Supervisors	11
B. Peers	19
C. Paralegals/Assistants.....	22
Chapter 3: Bankruptcy Basics	27
A. The Bankruptcy Code and Rules	27
B. The Courts	28
C. Consumer Cases	30
D. Business Cases	34
E. U.S. Trustee's Office.....	38
F. How to Keep Time.....	39
Chapter 4: Interactions with Clients	43
A. Consumer Debtor Client.....	44
B. Corporate Debtor Client.....	46
C. Creditor Client.....	47
D. The Creditors' Committee.....	48
Chapter 5: Pro Bono Work	51
A. Bankruptcy	52
B. Other Pro Bono Work.....	52

Chapter 6: Professionalism	55
A. At the Office	55
B. In the Courtroom	61
Chapter 7: Ethics	65
A. Privilege/Work Product (Electronic Communications)	67
B. Confidentiality	69
C. Candor to Tribunal	70
D. Conflicts of Interest	71
E. Bankruptcy Specifics	73
Chapter 8: Making a Career	79
A. Finding Your Specialty	79
B. Rainmaking	82
C. Billable Hours	83
D. Making Partner/Achieving the Next Level	84
E. In-House Counsel	86
F. Oops — I’m in the Wrong Practice Area	86
G. Oops — I Don’t Want to Practice Law	87
H. Relax: You Still Have Time to Brush Your Teeth	89
Chapter 9: A View from the Bench	91
A. Honesty: It’s Such a Lonely Word	92
B. So Tell Me What You Want, What You Really, Really Want: Lessons Learned from the Spice Girls	94
C. I Have a Kitchen; It Has a Sink	95
D. Remember, They’re Called “Briefs” for a Reason	97
E. Why Does All This Matter?	100
F. Be Mindful to Also Tell Me What You Mean, What You Really, Really Mean	101
G. In Conclusion	103