

Faculty Biographies

Jeffrey S. Ainsworth is an attorney with the Law Office of Robert Bailey Branson, P.A. in Orlando, Fla., where he practices in the areas of bankruptcy, creditors' rights and civil litigation. He is a member of the ABI, the Central Florida Bankruptcy Law Association, the Orange County Bar Association and the Florida Bar Association, and is the current chair of the Orange County Bar Association Bankruptcy Committee and treasurer of the Central Florida Bankruptcy Law Association. Mr. Ainsworth is admitted to practice in the U.S. District Court for the Northern, Middle and Southern Districts of Florida and all Florida state courts. He received his B.A. from the University of Central Florida and his J.D. from Florida State University College of Law.

Eric W. Anderson is a partner in the Atlanta office of Parker, Hudson, Rainer & Dobbs LLP and a member of the firm's bankruptcy practice group, concentrating his practice in bankruptcy, workouts, financial restructuring and commercial finance. He regularly represents banks, financial institutions, secured asset-based lenders and other parties in bankruptcy and financial restructuring matters both in and out of bankruptcy, debtor-in-possession financing, loan collection and enforcement, purchase and sale of assets of distressed companies, and various related transactions. A frequent writer and speaker, Mr. Anderson is a member and co-chair of the Advisory Board for ABI's Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop and has contributed articles to the ABI Journal and other publications. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Bar Association and is a past chair of the Atlanta Bar Association's Bankruptcy Law Section. Mr. Anderson has been included in Georgia's Legal Elite from 2007-12 and has been listed as a "Georgia Super Lawyer" in Atlanta Magazine. He has also been recognized by Chambers USA. Mr. Anderson received his undergraduate degree with distinction from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. cum laude from the University of Wisconsin Law School.

C.R. "Chip" Bowles, Jr. is a partner in the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP in Louisville, Ky., where he concentrates his practice in the areas of distressed-asset sales, professional compensation, representation of nonattorney professionals, and debtor and creditor rights. Prior to serving as law clerk to Hon. Henry H. Dickinson, he was an associate with the law firm of Porter, Wright, Morris and Author in Cincinnati. Mr. Bowles is an ABI director and vice chair of the National Ethics Task Force, chaired ABI's Chapter 11 Professional Fee Study, and has been a contributing editor of the ABI Journal. He formerly served as co-chair of ABI's Professional Compensation Committee and is a board member for the American Board of Certification. Mr. Bowles lectures and writes extensively on bankruptcy law and authored ABI's book Getting Paid: Retention and Compensation in Bankruptcy Cases—A Guide for Non-Attorney Professionals and the Attorneys Who Represent Them, now in its Second Edition. He is also the past editor of The Broken Bench and Bar, the newsletter of the Kentucky Bar Association's Bankruptcy Section, and is a board member of the American Board of Certification.

Hon. Kevin J. Carey is a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Delaware in Wilmington and served as Chief Judge from 2008-11. He also serves as the bankruptcy judge representative on the Third Circuit Judicial Council. He previously served as a U.S. bankruptcy judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Judge Carey began his legal career clerking for Hon. Thomas M. Twardowski, then served as clerk of court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He is a member of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges, ABI and the Turnaround Management Association's Board of Trustees. In addition, he is a member of the Judicial Conference Committee on Space and Facilities and the Council's Facilities and Security Committee, and he is a part-time adjunct professor at Temple University's Beasley School of Law and St. John's University's LL.M. in bankruptcy program. Judge Carey is a contributing author to the Collier Forms Manual and Collier on Bankruptcy. He received his B.A. from Pennsylvania State University and his J.D. from Villanova University School of Law.

Rudy J. Cerone is a member of McGlinchey Stafford, PLLC in its New Orleans office and is a former chair and president of the American Board of Certification. A frequent lecturer on bankruptcy issues for more than 20 years, he also serves as ABI's Secretary and was co-chair of ABI's Bankruptcy Litigation Committee from 2005-06 and chair of its Hospitality, Entertainment Venues and Gaming Subcommittee from 2001-05. He was also a member of ABI's Southwest Bankruptcy Conference Advisory Board from 2003-11. Mr. Cerone chaired the State Bar of California's Board of Legal Specialization from 2002-04 and is a member of the Federal Fifth Circuit and American Bar Associations (Business Law Section, Business Bankruptcy Committee and Secured Creditors' Subcommittee). He is Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy Law by the American Board of Certification (1993) and by the Louisiana State Bar Association (1997), and is also a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. Mr. Cerone received his B.A. summa cum laude from the University of California at San Diego and his J.D. cum laude from Boston College Law School, where he was a recipient of the Order of the Coif and received a "Best Law Review Editor" award as executive editor of the Boston College International & Comparative Law Review.

B. Summer Chandler is a partner with the firm of McKenna Long & Aldridge LLP in its Atlanta office. She has extensive experience representing various parties in interest in chapter 11 reorganization proceedings and chapter 7 liquidation proceedings, including prosecuting and defending bankruptcy litigation matters. In addition, she is heavily involved in her firm's representation of distressed municipalities. Ms. Chandler also represents clients before state and federal courts in a variety of commercial litigation actions, including business torts, contract disputes and receivership actions. She received her B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Asheville and her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School.

Maria Ellena Chavez-Ruark is a partner at Saul Ewing LLP in Baltimore, where she represents debtors, creditors' committees, secured creditors, unsecured creditors, lessors, purchasers of assets, trustees, receivers and other litigants in complex bankruptcy, debtor/creditor and commercial litigation matters. In 2009 and 2011, she was named one of Maryland's "Top 100 Women in Business" by The Daily Record, was named to The Best Lawyers in America in 2013 and was selected for inclusion in Maryland Super Lawyers from 2010 through the present. Ms. Chavez-Ruark was also recognized for her exemplary service and commitment to providing pro bono legal representation to Maryland's needy and underrepresented citizens by the Pro Bono Resource Center of Maryland in 2010 and by the Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service in 2006. She received her B.S. and M.B.A. from Salisbury University and her J.D. cum laude from the University of Baltimore School of Law.

Jules S. Cohen is a shareholder at Akerman Senterfitt LLP in Orlando, Fla., and has practiced bankruptcy law for more than 30 years. He regularly represents banks and other lenders as secured creditors in bankruptcy proceedings in all types of businesses. In addition, he represents buyers of assets from bankruptcy cases and defendants in preference suits. He has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since its beginning 17 years ago and is Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy Law by the American Board of Certification. Mr. Cohen received his B.A., cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Florida and his J.D. from Harvard Law School.

Henry M. Coxe, III is a director at Bedell, Dittmar, DeVault, Pillans & Coxe, P.A. in Jacksonville, Fla., where his practice focuses on criminal defense in both state and federal courts. Previously, he worked in the Florida State Attorney's Office. Mr. Coxe has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America since 1988 and was also named the Jacksonville Financial/Daily News "Lawyer of the Year," and for the past four years he has been identified as one of the top 10 Florida lawyers in Florida Super Lawyers Magazine. He received his B.A. from the University of the South and his J.D. from Washington and Lee University School of Law.

Richard M. Dauval is a partner with Leavengood, Nash, Dauval & Boyle, P.A. in St. Petersburg, Fla., and has practiced bankruptcy law since 2004. Prior to joining Leavengood, he was a litigation attorney for Feinberg, Isaak and Smith, P.A., in Tampa, Fla. Mr. Dauval is a member of the Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association, the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys (NACBA), ABI and the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Trustees. He was appointed to the Middle District of Florida Chapter 7 Panel of Trustees in January 2011, and is also a licensed title insurance agent with Attorney's Title Insurance Fund, Inc. Mr. Dauval received his B.A. from the University of Colorado at Boulder and his J.D. from the New England School of Law, and he also holds an LL.M in taxation from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

Prof. Andrew B. Dawson teaches contracts, bankruptcy and advanced topics in bankruptcy at the University of Miami School of Law in Coral Gables, Fla., and currently serves on the ABI Commission to Study the Reform of Chapter 11 as the reporter for its Labor and Benefits Section. In addition, Prof. Dawson serves on the executive advisory board of ABI's Caribbean Insolvency Symposium. He is currently researching topics concerning UCC revised Article 9 and bankruptcy and labor issues. Before joining the UM faculty, Prof. Dawson clerked in the Delaware Bankruptcy Court for Hon. Peter J. Walsh and on the Third Circuit Court of Appeals for Hon. Jane R. Roth, and he was a Kauffman Legal Fellow at Harvard Law School. Prof. Dawson received his B.A. from Williams College and his J.D. from the Harvard Law School, where he was senior editor of Harvard Negotiation Law Review. He has also received the ABI Medal of Excellence in Bankruptcy and the Irving Oberman Memorial Award for best student bankruptcy paper.

C. Edward Dobbs is a partner at Parker, Hudson, Rainer & Dobbs LLP in Atlanta, where he heads the firm's commercial practice group (which includes commercial lending, bankruptcy and workouts). He represents financial institutions in structuring and documenting commercial loan transactions, as well as debtors and creditors in workouts and chapter 11 bankruptcy cases. Mr. Dobbs has authored two books and numerous law review articles and is a frequent lecturer. He is a Fellow and past president of the American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers, a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, a former adjunct professor of law at Emory University Law School, a board member of the Southeastern Bankruptcy Law Institute, and a former president and chair of the Bankruptcy Law Section of the State Bar of Georgia. He is also a Fellow of the Georgia Bar Foundation and past chair of the creditors' rights and syndications subcommittees of the ABA Section of Business Law. Mr. Dobbs serves on the Davidson College Board of Trustees, and for more than 15 years has served on the complex commercial case panel of arbitrators for the American Arbitration Association and as a mediator in numerous matters arising out of or related to commercial lending and bankruptcy. He has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America and in Chambers USA, and he was named one of the top 10 "Georgia Super Lawyers" in Atlanta Magazine in 2004 and as one of the top 100 "Super Lawyers" in Georgia. Moreover, he has been listed in Georgia Trend magazine each year since 2004 as one of Georgia's leading practitioners. Mr. Dobbs is a graduate of Davidson College and earned his J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law, where he served as articles editor of The Vanderbilt Law Review and was a member of Order of the Coif.

Prof. Jaime L. Dodge is an assistant professor at the University of Georgia School of Law in Athens, Ga., teaching complex litigation, bankruptcy, dispute resolution and systems design. Her scholarship focuses on how the structure of procedural regimes, from aggregate litigation to alternative dispute resolution models, affects the exercise of rights and enforcement of substantive law. Her research also explores new sources of litigation, with an emphasis on the growing use of non-Article III tribunals by both private and public actors. Prof. Dodge's work has been published in the Virginia Law Review and the Harvard Law Review. Prior to coming to UGA, she served as a Climenko Fellow and Lecturer in Law at Harvard Law School, and she has also been an international visiting assistant professor at the Peking University School of Transnational Law. Prof. Dodge is currently co-reporter for the ABA's Working Group on White Collar Crime, Asset Forfeiture, and Business Bankruptcy. Before teaching, she practiced law for a number of years with Paul Hastings and later with Gibson Dunn, and prior to that she clerked for Hon. John T. Noonan Jr. of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Prof. Dodge received her B.A. from Dartmouth College, her M.D.R. from Pepperdine University and her J.D. from Harvard University, where she served as the Supreme Court chair of the Harvard Law Review.

Diane P. Furr is a partner at Poyner Spruill LLP in Charlotte, N.C., where her experience includes banking, credit, and financial services and bankruptcy in such fields as construction, retail, franchise, hospitality, manufacturing and equipment leasing. Her areas of practice include creditors' rights and bankruptcy, workouts, banking and commercial law. Ms Furr represents secured and unsecured creditors in chapter 11 cases involving preferences, reclamation and § 503(b)(9) claims, debtor-in-possession financing and cash-collateral issues, asset purchases and executory contracts, and she also represents unsecured creditors' committees in chapter 11 cases. She is a frequent author and is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association, the Turnaround Management Association, LEAN Network and ABI, for which she is on the advisory board of its Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop. Ms. Furr received her B.A. cum laude from Meredith College and her J.D. from Wake Forest University.

Hon. Arthur J. Gonzalez was a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of New York in New York from 1995-2012 and is currently a Senior Fellow at NYU School of Law, where he had been serving as an adjunct professor since 2008. Previously, Judge Gonzalez had been a U.S. Trustee for Region 2 (Second Circuit) from 1993-95 and an Assistant U.S. Trustee in the Southern District of New York from 1991-93. Prior to that, he was an attorney in the Office of Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service, earning the Chief Counsel's Special Achievement Award for three consecutive years. Following his career with the IRS, he practiced with the firms of Pollner, Mezan, Stolzberg, Berger & Glass, P.C. and Gaston & Snow in New York City. Judge Gonzalez received his undergraduate degree in accounting from Fordham University, his master's degree in education from Brooklyn College, his J.D. from Fordham University School of Law and his LL.M. in taxation from New York University School of Law.

Neil C. Gordon is a partner in the bankruptcy and reorganization department at Arnall Golden Gregory LLP in Atlanta. He has been in private practice for 30 years, with the last 28 devoted exclusively to the areas of bankruptcy, business reorganization, fraud investigations and creditors' rights. Mr. Gordon chaired the Bankruptcy Law Section of the Atlanta Bar Association from 1992-93 and has been a panel trustee since 1994, administering approximately 23,000 chapter 7 and 11 cases. Mr. Gordon was first elected to the Board of the National Association of Bankruptcy Trustees in 2000 and currently serves as its president. He is also on the editorial boards of both the Journal of the National Association of Bankruptcy Trustees and the ABI Journal. Mr. Gordon has authored or co-authored more than 40 scholarly articles and book chapters on bankruptcy law-related topics and has been a speaker at more than 50 seminars throughout the country. Mr. Gordon is the education director of ABI's Legislation Committee and a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. After graduating from the University of Georgia's Lumpkin School of Law in 1979, he served for two years as a law clerk in Atlanta for U.S. District Court Judge Robert L. Vining, Jr.

Elizabeth A. Green is an equity partner in the Orlando, Fla., office of Baker Hostetler, where she practices primarily in the areas of bankruptcy and creditors' rights and has represented corporate debtors and secured creditors, unsecured creditors, committees, bondholders and trustees in bankruptcy cases of corporate and individual debtors. She is also experienced with out-of-court workouts, assignments for the benefit of creditors and the representation of receivers. Ms. Green has been recognized in Best Lawyers in America as "Orlando Insolvency Lawyer of the Year 2012," Orlando Magazine's "Top Lawyers," Florida Trend's "Legal Elite" and Florida Super Lawyers since 2006, as well as in Chambers USA since 2012. In addition, she is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell. Ms. Green has served as a director of the Central Florida Bankruptcy Bar Association since 2008 and is its immediate past president. She is also a member of the Business Law Section of The Florida Bar and is on its committee to amend the Assignment for Benefit of Creditors statute, and she is a founder and co-chair of the Central Florida C.A.R.E. Program (Credit Abuse Resistance Education) for high school and college students. She received her J.D. with honors from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where she was a member of the Order of the Coif, and her B.A. from the New College of Florida.

James Hadfield is a director with Morgan Joseph TriArtisan LLC in Atlanta and has more than a decade of investment banking, private equity and lending experience. Mr. Hadfield focuses on middle-market financing, merger and acquisition, and restructuring advisory services. Before joining Morgan Joseph, he co-opened a regional office for Cerberus Capital Management and its lending fund Ableco Finance. While at Cerberus, Mr. Hadfield was responsible for the sourcing of new debt and equity investment opportunities, underwriting transactions and portfolio management. Prior to joining Cerberus, he had focused on execution of a variety of engagements with Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin and was an associate with Standard & Poor's Corporate Value Consulting and a Financial Analyst with International Business Machines. Mr. Hadfield received his B.B.A. summa cum laude with high honors from the Terry School of Business at the University of Georgia.

Hon. Wendy L. Hagenau is a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Georgia in Atlanta. Prior to assuming the bench in 2010, she was a partner in the restructuring group at Bryan Cave Powell Goldstein LLP in Atlanta, where she concentrated in workouts and insolvency, representing debtors in workouts in chapter 11 cases, representation of creditors, including indenture trustees in chapter 11 cases, receivership actions and workouts, and commercial litigation in general, including dischargeability litigation. Judge Hagenau has extensive experience in the representation of nursing homes and health care providers and broad experience in commercial litigation, including state and district court jury trials. She also has experience in advising insolvent financial institution holding companies. Judge Hagenau has spoken to various groups, including the State Bar of Georgia and the Georgia Bankers Association. She is a director of the Southeastern Bankruptcy Law Institute and a member of the Advisory Board for the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Law Journal. Judge Hagenau has been named a "Georgia Legal Elite Lawyer" and "Georgia Super Lawyer," and has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America and Chambers' America's Leading Lawyers for Business. She received her B.A. in 1980 from the University of Tennessee and her J.D. in 1983 from Duke University School of Law.

Hon. Laurel Myerson Isicoff has been a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Florida in Miami since Feb. 13, 2006. Previously, she specialized in commercial bankruptcy, foreclosure, bankruptcy and SEC receiverships involving Ponzi schemes and workout matters both as a transactional attorney and as a litigator for 14 years with the law firm of Kozyak Tropin & Throckmorton after practicing for eight years with Squire, Sanders & Dempsey. She holds an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell and has been recognized several times in The Best Lawyers in America, Chambers USA "America's Leading Lawyers for Business," in the "2005 Client's Guide" by Chambers & Partners as a leading individual in the field of bankruptcy, and as a "Top Lawyer" in South Florida by The Florida Trend. She was inducted into the American College of Bankruptcy in March 2006 and was recently appointed to serve as a director of the American College of Bankruptcy Foundation. Judge Isicoff is a past president of the Bankruptcy Bar Association (BBA) of the Southern District of Florida and chaired the BBA's Pro Bono Task Force prior to her judicial appointment. She taught the inaugural year of the Bankruptcy Assistance Clinic at St. Thomas Law School, a program that she helped design and for which she served as a student mentor, and she also served as a student mentor to the University of Miami School of Law bankruptcy clinic. Judge Isicoff speaks extensively on bankruptcy and pro bono service topics around the country, as well as to high school and college students in the Miami area on financial literacy. She clerked for Hon. Daniel S. Pearson at the Florida Third District Court of Appeals before entering private practice with Squire Sanders & Dempsey. Judge Isicoff received her J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law in 1982.

Cory G. Jackson, Jr. is president of Jackson Hospitality Services (JHS), a hotel management and development firm in Birmingham, Ala., where he manages full- and focus-service properties in the southeastern United States, concentrating on Hilton and Intercontinental Hotel Group-licensed properties. Mr. Jackson also serves as vice president of Vimana Franchise Systems, LLC, which licenses Key West Inns and Centerstone Hotels, representing more than 30 properties. During his career, he has developed more than 35 new-build hotels. He is also a past chairman of the American Hotel Association's Council of Inns & Suites. Mr. Jackson received his B.S. from Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration.

Lesley J. Johnson is a partner at Kapila & Company in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. She joined the firm in 1997 after 17 years practicing tax with international and large regional accounting firms. Ms. Johnson concentrates on bankruptcy and insolvency taxation, and has provided tax services to debtors, creditors, receivers, assignees, bankruptcy trustees and liquidating trustees. She is qualified as a CPA for the state of Florida, is a Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor, and is a member of the Florida Institute of Public Accountants, the American Institute of Public Accountants, and the Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors. Ms. Johnson received her B.S. from Barry University.

Joe A. Joseph is a partner in the Creditor's Rights and Bankruptcy Group of Burr & Forman LLP in Birmingham, Ala. Since 1987, his practice has been concentrated on the representation of creditors and other parties in complex commercial matters, both in bankruptcy court and in state and federal trial courts. He also has extensive experience in chapter 11 reorganizations and commercial loan restructurings. Mr. Joseph has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America (2009-13) and as a leading practitioner in bankruptcy and restructuring by Chambers USA. He received his B.S. from the University of Alabama and his J.D. from Samford University Cumberland School of Law.

Jeffrey W. Kelley is a partner at Troutman Sanders LLP in Atlanta, where he leads the firm's bankruptcy practice group and concentrates his practice on commercial bankruptcy, reorganization and restructuring. He is a contributing author to ABI Journal, the Norton Annual Surveys of Bankruptcy Law, the ABA Banking Journal and the Georgia Bar Journal, is listed in Chambers USA and Atlanta Magazine's "Georgia Super Lawyers," and was named a Legal Elite by Georgia Trend magazine. Mr. Kelley is on the advisory board of ABI's Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop and is a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. He is also director of the Southeast Bankruptcy Law Institute and a past chairman of the American Bar Association's Lender Liability Subcommittee of the Commercial Finance Committee. A frequent speaker, Mr. Kelley has been a panelist at conferences for such organizations as ABI, ABA, AIRA, ICLE in Georgia and the Georgia Bankers Association. He is a member of the American, Federal and Atlanta Bar Associations, ABI and the Turnaround Management Association. Mr. Kelley earned his B.A. cum laude from Vanderbilt University and his J.D. from the University of Illinois, where he was editor and contributing author to the Law Forum.

Jennifer B. Kimble is a member of Haskell Slaughter Young & Rediker, LLC in Birmingham, Ala., and practices in the firm's bankruptcy group, where she represents creditors, debtors, unsecured creditors committees, chapter 7 trustees and other parties in bankruptcy and civil litigation matters, workouts and out-of-court restructurings. Ms. Kimble serves on the executive board of the Bankruptcy and Commercial Law Section of the Birmingham Bar Association, as well as on the Birmingham Bar Association's Grievance Committee. She also serves on the IWIRC Board of Directors as programs director, and in 2010 she co-founded and now co-chairs the IWIRC Alabama Network. Ms. Kimble is a member of TMA and was selected as an Alabama Super Lawyers “Rising Star” in 2011, 2012 and 2013 for bankruptcy and creditor/debtor rights. She also received IWIRC’s Rising Star Award in 2012. Ms. Kimble received her B.A. summa cum laude from Mississippi State University and her J.D. magna cum laude from the University of Mississippi School of Law, where she was associate articles editor of the Mississippi Law Journal and served on its moot court board.

Jeanne A. Kraft is a shareholder with Wolff, Hill, McFarlin & Herron, PA, in Orlando, Fla., and has represented debtors, creditors and trustees in all aspects of business and consumer bankruptcy cases. She is certified in consumer bankruptcy law by the American Board of Certification and served two terms on the board of directors of the Central Florida Bankruptcy Law Association, a nonprofit organization that supports the collegial and professional practice of bankruptcy law in Central Florida. Recently, Ms. Kraft was appointed by Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Karen S. Jennemann to the District-Wide Steering Committee for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida. She is admitted to practice in Florida, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, and the U.S. District and Bankruptcy Courts for both the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida. Ms. Kraft received her B.A. from the University of Florida and her J.D. from Stetson University College of Law.

Charles H. Lichtman is a shareholder of Berger Singerman, PA in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where his practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and trial practice, particularly in “bet the farm” business crisis matters. He has significant experience in large fraud, corporate shareholder and finance cases of all types and has tried approximately 120 cases. For nearly 4 years, Mr. Lichtman has served as lead litigation counsel for Bankruptcy Trustee Herbert Stettin in connection with the largest Ponzi scheme in Florida history, In re Rothstein Rosenfeldt & Adler, P.A. (RRA). The trustee’s liquidating plan of reorganization was recently approved and will provide a 100 percent payment to general unsecured creditors — possibly the first time in history that victims of a Ponzi scheme of this scope will obtain such a recovery. Mr. Lichtman has been named in The Best Lawyers in America since 2009 in the areas of “Bet the Business” Litigation, Securities Litigation, Bankruptcy Litigation and Commercial Litigation. He was also a finalist in 2011 for the Daily Business Review’s “Most Effective Lawyer Award in Bankruptcy” and was named by the South Florida Business Journal as a “Key Partner” in 2010. Mr. Lichtman is a frequent lecturer in a wide array of issues dealing with fraud cases, complex litigation and trial practice. He received his A.B. from Indiana University and his J.D. from DePaul University College of Law.

Hon. Margaret A. Mahoney is Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Alabama in Mobile, appointed in December 1993. She has also been a bankruptcy judge in the District of Minnesota and the Southern District of Texas. From 1989-93, Judge Mahoney was a partner in Weil, Gotshal & Manges’s Houston and Dallas offices. She is a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy, was editor-in-chief of the American Bankruptcy Law Journal and is a frequent speaker at continuing legal education programs. Judge Mahoney graduated from the College of St. Catherine in St. Paul, Minn., Phi Beta Kappa and received her J.D. with honors from the University of Minnesota Law School.

John Makuch is a managing director with Alvarez & Marsal in Atlanta, where he focuses on crisis management, cash management, formulating and evaluating strategic business plans, managing cash, and executing financial and operational restructurings both in and out of bankruptcy. He is a Certified Turnaround Professional (CTP) and a Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor (CIRA). Mr. Makuch is a member of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA) and the Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors (AIRA). He received his B.S. with honors from Villanova University.

Mark M. Maloney is a partner with King & Spalding LLP in Atlanta and a member of its Financial Restructuring Practice Group, where he represents a broad range of clients in litigation matters involving creditors' rights, bankruptcy, lender liability, and other financial and commercial disputes, and has experience in general commercial litigation and tax litigation. Mr. Maloney has also represented debtors, secured and unsecured creditors' committees and other parties in interest in major chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and other insolvency proceedings in more than 20 states and the District of Columbia. He is admitted in both the U.S. Court of Federal Claims and the U.S. Tax Court, and he has served as co-chair of ABI's Litigation Committee and ABI's Litigation Skills Symposium. Mr. Maloney is a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy and a board member of both the Southeastern Bankruptcy Law Institute and the Bankruptcy Section of the State Bar of Georgia, for which he will serve as president in 2013-14. Prior to joining King & Spalding, Mr. Maloney served as law clerk to Hon. Rhesa H. Barksdale on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. His published works have appeared in the Annual Survey of Bankruptcy Law, the Washington & Lee Law Review and Bankruptcy Litigation. Mr. Maloney has been listed as one of the top bankruptcy attorneys in the country in The Deal magazine and in The Best Lawyers in America, as a "Georgia Super Lawyer" in Atlanta Magazine, as a member of GeorgiaTrend magazine's Georgia "Legal Elite" and as a leading bankruptcy lawyer in The Legal 500. He received his B.B.A. cum laude in banking and finance from the University of Mississippi and his J.D. magna cum laude from Washington & Lee University, where he was senior articles editor on the Washington & Lee Law Review.

Jennifer M. McLemore is a partner at Christian & Barton, LLP, in Richmond, Va., where she focuses her legal practice on representing business creditors in bankruptcy and commercial litigation matters. She is a member of the ABI's Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop Advisory Board, moderates the listserv for the ABI's Unsecured Trade Creditors Committee, serves as the finance director for the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation, and is a founder of the IWIRC-Virginia Network. Ms. McLemore received her B.A. from Miami University (Oxford, Ohio) and her J.D. from the University of Richmond School of Law.

Jennifer M. Meyerowitz is a vice president, senior consultant and director of business development at Epiq Systems, Inc. in New York, where her primary responsibility is to spearhead the development and execution of Epiq's business-development and client-relations initiatives and to introduce Epiq's service offerings to a broader client base. Prior to joining Epiq, Ms. Meyerowitz spent almost 10 years as a bankruptcy attorney at Alston & Bird LLP in Atlanta. She is the chair-elect of the Bankruptcy Section of the Atlanta Bar Association, as well as vice chair of the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation and a board member, co-founder and past chair of its Georgia Network division. She also serves on various committees of the Turnaround Management Association and ABI. Ms. Meyerowitz has participated in numerous panel discussions regarding bankruptcy and restructuring and has co-authored a number of bankruptcy-related articles. She has been named as a “Georgia Super Lawyer Rising Star” by Law & Politics Magazine and as one of the “Legal Elite” by Georgia Trend Magazine, and she received Alston & Bird LLP’s F.M. Bird Award of 2007 for exemplary pro bono and community service. Ms. Meyerowitz received her B.A. from the University of Michigan and her J.D. from Emory University School of Law, where she was executive notes and comments editor for the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Journal.

Prof. Jeffrey W. Morris is Professor Emeritus at the University of Dayton School of Law in Dayton, Ohio. Most recently, he served as the Samuel A. McCray Professor of Law at the University of Dayton School of Law, where he taught from 1981 to 2013. He has also been a visiting professor of law at Ohio State University and the University of Missouri-Kansas City. Prof. Morris is a member of the National Bankruptcy Conference (NBC), serving as its secretary and as a co-reporter of its Individual Debtor Committee. He is also Of Counsel with Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur in Dayton. Prof. Morris is a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy and was ABI’s Robert M. Zinman Resident Scholar for the Spring 2005 semester. His publications include Problems & Materials on Debtor/Creditor Law, published by Aspen Law & Business. He worked in private practice before starting his teaching career. Prof. Morris received his B.A. cum laude from Providence College and his J.D. cum laude from Washington and Lee University, where he served as editor of its law review.

Felton Parrish is a partner in the Charlotte, N.C., office of Winston & Strawn LLP, where he focuses on representing institutional lenders and other large creditors in connection with the restructuring and enforcement of debt obligations. He also advises lenders on how to structure financial transactions and represents parties in interest in insolvency-related litigation. Mr. Parrish co-authored a chapter entitled “Sales of Assets Under Section 363” in Collier Guide to Chapter 11: Key Topics and Selected Industries (LexisNexis, 2010). He received his B.S. magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Wake Forest University, and his J.D. with honors from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Law.

Hon. Pamela Pepper is Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of Wisconsin in Milwaukee, initially appointed on July 5, 2005, and named chief judge on July 1, 2010. Upon graduation from law school, she clerked for Hon. Frank M. Johnson, Jr. on the Eleventh Circuit. In 1990, she joined the U.S. Attorney’s Office in Chicago and moved to the Milwaukee U.S. Attorney’s Office in 1994. She previously was a solo criminal defense practitioner, representing clients in federal trial courts and in the Seventh Circuit, as well as in Wisconsin state court. Judge Pepper holds a graduate certificate in dispute resolution from Marquette University and has taught legal writing and law practice management at Marquette Law School. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Association for Women Lawyers, the Seventh Circuit Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association and the NACTT Academy for Consumer Bankruptcy Education. She previously served on the boards of Federal Defender Services and the State Public Defender. Judge Pepper is a former president of the Milwaukee Bar Association and co-chairs its Bankruptcy Bench/Bar Committee, and she is a member of ABI, for which she is co-chair and education director of its Consumer Bankruptcy Committee, and of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges, for which she is an associate editor of the American Bankruptcy Law Journal. She also serves on the Human Resources Advisory Council of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts and speaks at Federal Judicial Center programs. Judge Pepper received her undergraduate degree in theater from Northwestern University and her J.D. from Cornell Law School, where she was a notes editor on the Cornell Law Review and a teaching assistant.

Robin E. Phelan is a partner at Haynes and Boone, LLP in Dallas, where he focuses his practice on insolvency, reorganization and related areas, including extensive litigation in the bankruptcy court and other federal courts, and analyzes the effects of bankruptcy on corporate and financial transactions. He is a frequent speaker on panels and programs throughout the U.S. and internationally regarding developments in bankruptcy and insolvency law, and he has authored numerous publications, several of them relating to tax, governmental and environmental claims. He is a contributor to several major treatises on bankruptcy and has testified before both the Congressional Bankruptcy Review Commission and U.S. Congress on insolvency matters. Mr. Phelan participated in a program sponsored by the U.S. Department of State and the United Nations to develop model cross-border insolvency provisions, and he participated in a White House program to improve the U.S. bankruptcy system. He is a former ABI president, a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, and a member of INSOL and the Dallas, American and International Bar Associations. Mr. Phelan has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America for more than 20 years and was recognized by Chambers USA from 2008-11 as one of the leading practitioners in the U.S. for bankruptcy. He earned his B.S.B.A. and his J.D. cum laude from Ohio State University.

Jeffrey D. Prol is a partner in the bankruptcy and creditor's rights department at Lowenstein Sandler LLP in Roseland, N.J. He has 25 years of experience in the debtor/creditor rights field, including bankruptcy, complex business transactions and litigation, corporate restructuring, business consulting, out-of-court workouts and foreclosures. Mr. Prol is recognized in The Best Lawyers in America (2012-13) and the Bankruptcy & Creditor/Debtor Rights section of Super Lawyers (2005-13). He received his B.S. with honors from the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy and his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law.

Patricia A. Redmond is a shareholder in the Bankruptcy and Restructuring Department of Stearns, Weaver, Miller, Weissler, Alhadeff & Sitterson, PA in Miami, where she concentrates on creditors' rights and insolvency counseling in bankruptcy court and out-of-court restructurings. She has practiced in the insolvency field in Miami for more than 30 years and has appeared in many reorganizations and out-of-court workouts in several industries, representing developers, financial institutions, public and private owners and distressed-asset purchasers. She is ABI's President, a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy and a past president of the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the Southern District of Florida. Ms. Redmond has been listed in the South Florida Legal Guide, Florida Trend's "Legal Elite" and The Best Lawyers in America. She is a frequent lecturer on various aspects of bankruptcy, particularly involving chapter 11 issues. In 2002, she received the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Award, and in 2011 was recognized as a Band I attorney by Chambers USA. Ms. Redmond serves as an adjunct professor of law at the University of Miami School of Law, where she received the Outstanding Professor Award in 2011. She is admitted to practice before the bars of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the state of Florida. Ms. Redmond graduated from the University of Miami School of Law in 1979.

Robert P. Reynolds is senior partner at Reynolds, Reynolds & Little, LLC in Tuscaloosa, Ala., where he represents lenders in commercial litigation throughout Alabama and in bankruptcy proceedings in Alabama, the Northern District of Florida and other bankruptcy courts throughout the country. He is a member of ABI and a former chair of the Alabama State Bar's Bankruptcy and Commercial Law Section, and he is board certified in both Business and Consumer Bankruptcy Law by the American Board of Certification. Mr. Reynolds received his B.S. from Auburn University and his J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law.

Hon. Frank J. Santoro is a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of Virginia in Norfolk, appointed on Feb. 21, 2008. Prior to his appointment, he was a managing partner at Marcus, Santoro & Kozak, P.C., located in Portsmouth and Chesapeake, Va., where his practice concentrated in bankruptcy, corporate reorganizations and corporate finance. Judge Santoro served as a standing chapter 13 trustee beginning in 1987 and also as a chapter 7 panel trustee from December 1981 through May 1990. A former law clerk to Judge Hal J. Bonney, Jr., he has been a frequent speaker at seminars and is a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. In 2003, Judge Santoro was selected by his peers as an outstanding bankruptcy lawyer in Virginia. He received his B.A. with honors and Phi Beta Kappa from Allegheny College and his J.D. from the Marshall Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary.

Henry C. Shelton, III is a partner in the Memphis office of Adams and Reese LLP and serves as leader of the firm's Commercial Restructuring and Bankruptcy Team. He focuses his practice on business litigation and bankruptcy, as well as on workouts and reorganizations. Mr. Shelton has successfully advised several businesses in company reorganizations with and without recourse to the courts, and he has likewise represented creditors in bankruptcy and insolvency matters. He is a Life Member of the Sixth Circuit Judicial Conference and also is listed in The Best Lawyers in America in Bankruptcy and Creditor-Debtor Rights Law. Mr. Shelton received his B.A. with honors from Wesleyan University and his J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law.

Eric J. Silver is an associate in the Business Restructuring Department of Stearns, Weaver, Miller, Weissler, Alhadeff & Sitterson, PA in Miami. Prior to joining the firm, he served as a law clerk to Hon. Robert A. Mark of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida. Mr. Silver earned his B.A. from the University of Michigan and his joint J.D./M.B.A. degree from the University of Miami School of Law and School of Business Administration. While in law school, he served on the University of Miami Business Law Review and interned for Hon. Leon Firtel in the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida.

Shayna M. Steinfeld is a founder of Steinfeld & Steinfeld, PC in Atlanta, where she practices exclusively in the areas of bankruptcy and corporate reorganization. She is a past-president of the Atlanta Bar Association, a past-president of the Georgia Association for Women Lawyers (GAWL) and a member of IWIRC-GA and the Metropolitan Atlanta Consumer Bankruptcy Group. Ms.

Steinfeld is also a past chair of the Sole Practitioner/Small Firm (earning “Section of the Year”) and Bankruptcy Sections of the Atlanta Bar, and the Bankruptcy sections of the State Bar (also earning “Section of the Year”). She was awarded the “Outstanding Woman in the Profession Achievement Award” by the Women in the Profession Committee of the Atlanta Bar, and the GAWL has honored her as a “trailblazer” with its Kathleen Kessler Award. Ms. Steinfeld has served as a vice president for the National Conference of Women’s Bar Associations, and she has been a frequent lecturer on various bankruptcy-related topics to numerous national, local and state-wide bar associations. She has also authored several articles appearing in the state and national bar journal and section newsletters, and she also co-authored and published The Family Lawyers Guide to Bankruptcy through the American Bar Association (now in its second edition). Ms. Steinfeld is licensed to appear before Georgia State and Federal Courts and the U.S. Supreme Court. She received her B.A., J.D. and M.B.A. from Emory University.

J. Ellsworth Summers, Jr. is a shareholder with Rogers Towers, PA in Jacksonville, Fla., where he practices in the areas of bankruptcy, creditors’ rights and commercial litigation. Before joining Rogers Towers in the fall of 2004, he practiced with the law firm of Kaufman & Canoles in Virginia in its bankruptcy and creditors’ rights group for five years. From 1998-99, Mr. Summers was a law clerk to Hon. Stephen C. St. John, a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of Virginia, and he interned with Hon. Alexander L. Paskay and Hon. Elizabeth Kovachevich, a U.S. District Court Judge for the Middle District of Florida. He is a member of ABI, the Florida Bar Association, the Virginia Bar Association and the Jacksonville Bankruptcy Bar Association. Mr. Summers has appeared before state and federal courts in 12 states, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of Virginia. Mr. Summers is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell and has been named in Florida Super Lawyers since 2009. He is admitted to practice in the Fourth and Eleventh Circuit Courts of Appeals, as well as in the state and federal courts in the State of Florida and the Commonwealth of Virginia. Mr. Summers received his B.A. cum laude from Hampden-Sydney College and his J.D. cum laude from Stetson University College of Law.

Joel R. Tew is the owner of Tew & Associates in New Port Richey, Fla., and has practiced in the Tampa Bay area for more than 30 years as a commercial litigator and a real estate development and land use attorney. For the past five years, he has also served as a general counsel for a nationally recognized court-appointed receiver on more than 50 state and federal court receiverships. Mr. Tew received his B.A. from Davidson College and a his J.D. from Vanderbilt University, where he was a Patrick Wilson Scholar and served as editor in chief for the Vanderbilt Law Review.

Richard H. Thomson is a partner with Clark & Washington, PC in Atlanta and is past president of the Metro Atlanta Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys Group. He is also a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, an advisory board member of the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Journal and a board member of the Atlanta Bar Association Bankruptcy Section. Mr. Thompson is Board Certified in Consumer Bankruptcy Law by the American Board of Certification and is an ABI member. He received his undergraduate degree from State University of New York and his J.D. from the University of Georgia School of Law.

Judy D. Thompson is in private practice at JD Thompson Law in Charlotte, N.C., where she represents lenders, unsecured creditors' committees, trade creditors, franchisors, asset-purchasers and chapter 11 debtors in business bankruptcy cases and workouts throughout the country. In 2010, Ms. Thompson withdrew from Poyner Spruill LLP, a large multidisciplinary firm for which she organized and chaired its Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Practice Group, in order to concentrate her practice on specific clients and matters. She also continues to have an active commercial and bankruptcy litigation practice, advising lenders on federal consumer law issues in areas such as the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Equal Credit Opportunity Act and Fair Credit Reporting Act, along with an active and growing mediation practice in North Carolina in state lawsuits and nationally in bankruptcy litigation. Ms. Thompson is licensed in North Carolina and Texas (inactive) and is a past president of the Mecklenburg (Charlotte) County Bar, a member and former vice president of ABI, founding member and former chair of International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation Carolinas, past councilor of the Bankruptcy Section of the North Carolina Bar Association and past councilor of the State Bar of North Carolina. She has also been listed in The Best Lawyers in America, where she is regularly named a "Super Lawyer" and among the "Legal Elite." Ms. Thompson is a frequent speaker at the state and national levels on bankruptcy, creditors' rights, workouts and mediation, and has contributed numerous articles to creditor- and lender-oriented publications. She is the editor of ABI's General Assignments for Benefit of Creditors and Preference Defense Handbook, both now in their second editions. Ms. Thompson received her B.A. from the University of Florida, her M.S. from Florida State University and her J.D. from the University of Houston with honors.

Charles W. Throckmorton is a founding member of the Miami law firm of Kozyak Tropin & Throckmorton, PA, where he concentrates his practice in commercial bankruptcy matters and complex commercial litigation, and has extensive experience in representing lenders, unsecured creditors, debtors, statutory trustees, liquidating trustees and creditors' committees in reorganizations and in bankruptcy litigation matters. Mr. Throckmorton is a 2010 Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. He is recognized in The Best Lawyers in America in the field of bankruptcy and has been AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell since 1985. America's Leading Lawyers for Business, published by Chambers USA, ranks Mr. Throckmorton as a leading bankruptcy lawyer in Florida. He received his B.S. magna cum laude from Duke University and his J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law.

Laurie K. Weatherford is the chapter 13 standing trustee for the Middle District of Florida in Winter Park, Fla.. Prior to her appointment in 1996, Ms. Weatherford was Of Counsel with the law firm of Maguire, Voorhis & Wells, representing primarily debtors and creditors' committees in chapter 11 cases. She was also a chapter 7 panel trustee. Ms. Weatherford received her B.A. with honors from the University of Florida and her J.D. with honors from the Cumberland School of Law.

David A. Wender is a partner in Alston & Bird LLP's Bankruptcy, Workouts & Reorganization Group in Atlanta, where he provides counsel, advice and representation to a variety of clients in complex bankruptcy cases, out-of-court workouts, debt restructurings, asset dispositions and claims reconciliation. Mr. Wender represents purchasers, sellers and other parties in § 363 sales, debtors in possession, secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees and other parties. He also counsels and represents officers, directors and others in complex bankruptcy and nonbankruptcy litigation, and has lectured on bankruptcy and creditors' rights, § 363 acquisitions and legal ethics. Prior to joining Alston & Bird, Mr. Wender served as law clerk to Hon. Mary F. Walrath, Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Delaware. He is licensed to practice law in the state of Georgia and is a member of the bankruptcy section of the Atlanta Bar Association and ABI. Mr. Wender is a member of ABI's Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop Advisory Board. He received his B.S. in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis and his J.D. from the Emory University School of Law.

Nancy J. Whaley is an attorney and chapter 13 trustee for the Northern District of Georgia in Atlanta, appointed in January 2003, and also serves as the chapter 12 trustee for the Northern District of Georgia. She is an adjunct professor of law at John Marshall Law School and is a member and past president of the Georgia Association for Women Lawyers. Ms. Whaley serves on the State Bar of Georgia's Board of Governors, is a past chair of its Bankruptcy Section and Communications Committee and is a member of its Finance and Legislative Affairs' Advisory Committee. She also served on the Executive Committee for the State Bar of Georgia from 2005-11, is a current board member for the Atlanta Bar Association Bankruptcy Section and is a Fellow and past board member for the Lawyers Foundation of Georgia. She retired from the Air Force Reserve on Oct. 3, 2009, at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Ms. Whaley received her B.A. cum laude from Eureka College, where she was a Ronald Reagan Scholar, and earned her J.D. from Emory Law School.

Prof. Jack F. Williams is a tenured professor at Georgia State University College of Law and the Middle East Institute in Atlanta, where he teaches and/or conducts research in the areas of bankruptcy and business reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, commercial law and damages models, corporate finance, financial institutions, fraud and anti-corruption, Islamic banking and finance, taxation, and law and statistics. Prof. Williams is the Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors Scholar in Residence and served as the inaugural Robert M. Zinman American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI) Scholar in Residence in 2001, returning to that post in 2008. In 2009, ABI recognized his with its Annual Service Award (2009), which honors the ABI member whose contributions have been extraordinary. He is a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy and is the national co-director of the Litigation, Investigation and Intelligence Services practice, as well as a senior managing director at Mesiraw Financial Consulting, LLC, in Atlanta and New York City. Prof. Williams received his B.A. from the University of Oklahoma and his J.D. from George Washington University of Law with high honors, where he was also a member of the Order of the Coif.

Hon. Michael G. Williamson is a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Middle District of Florida in Tampa, appointed in March 2000. He served as a chapter 7 panel trustee from 1977-2000 and represented numerous chapter 11 corporate debtors, creditors' committees and trustees in bankruptcy cases pending throughout Florida. Judge Williamson is a past chair of the Committee on Creditors' Rights for the Section of Litigation of the American Bar Association, past chair of the Business Law Section of the Florida Bar and its Bankruptcy/UCC Committee, and a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy. He received his undergraduate degree from Duke University and his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center.

Melissa A. Youngman is a partner at McCalla Raymer, LLC in Orlando, Fla., where she manages the firm's Florida Bankruptcy Department, representing mortgage creditors in consumer and commercial bankruptcy proceedings. Prior to joining McCalla Raymer, Ms. Youngman was an associate at Wolff, Hill, McFarlin & Herron, P.A., also located in Orlando. Prior to that, she was an associate in the financial restructuring and bankruptcy department of Fox Rothschild LLP in New York. Ms. Youngman serves as a board member of the Central Florida Bankruptcy Law Association and sits on ABI's Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop Advisory Board. She was recently named a Florida Super Lawyers "Rising Star." Ms. Youngman received her B.A. from the University of Florida and her J.D. from St. John's University School of Law.